With no regulars returning, Fr. William Brennan was faced with the task of rebuilding golf's fortunes here at Marquette. He chose Senior Tom Gooding as Captain and with Dan Daly, Dave Popalisky, and Rick Quinlevan the golf team was able to make a respectable showing in the one tournament it was allowed to play in. They finished 8th in State, with Tom Gooding tying for front nine medalist.

German Club

Der Verein für Studenten der deutschen Sprache spielt eine wichtige Rolle unter den Studienfächern der Schule. Vor Allem dient der Verein der kulturellen Ausbildung seiner Mitgliedern sowie auch den anderen Studenten. Damit wird die Gelegenheit gegeben die weltberühmte deutsche Kultur als Maup Quelle der menschlichen Wissenschaft Kennen zu lernen. Viele minderbegabte Studenten machen Französisch, Italienisch, und Englisch mit; aber umsonst. Ohne volle Erkenntnis von der deutschen Kultur bleibt man wesentlich ungebildet. Sofern es den deutschen Verein angehe, "Deutsch land über Alles" and die Anderen zum Teufel.

French Club

Le Club Francais de Marquette University High School joue la rôle la plus important de la vie intellectuelle de l'école. Il provide l'information neçessaire de France, sans doute la plus grande nation de l'universe. Si on etudie l'anglais, l'espagnol, ou l'allemade, c'est une bonne idée — mais pour être l'homme vraiment intelligent, il faut pouvoir lire les livres de Voltaire, Rebelais, Balzac, Hogo, Sartre, Camus, et tant d'autres. Tous les autres clubs y semblent à co-
chon, le club français à l'exception. "Allons entants! . . ."

Latin Club

Societas Latina Universitatis Marquettensis scholae altae partem pretiosam in vita intellectualem scholae cognitione dicendo de Roma, quem omnes scimus esse fontem maximam humanitatis mundi agit. Licet forsitan quispiam tractaverit linguam Gallicam et Germanicam et Hispanam, nihilo setius scientia praeclara linguae Latinae est necessaria ut quispiam fiat vir eruditissimus. Quoad societas latina potest aegre ferre, societas Germanica et societas Gallica et societas Hispana exitantur ut eant ad Gehennam.

Spanish Club

El club Español de Marquette University High School toma un papel de suma importancia en el desarrollo intelectual de nuestros alumnos porque provee muchos datos para el más hondo entendimiento de la cultura de España, la cual ha enriquecida tanto la historia del hemisferio occidental.

Sirve estudiar los idiomas Alemán, Francés o Latín, pero para ser verdad eramente formado un estudiante no puede dejar de estudiar la lengua de las estrellas de la historia humana, los españoles como Cervantes, El Greco, Santa Teresa de Avila, y Juan de la Cruz.

Por eso el club de Español tanto excede en importancia cultural los demas clubs de nuestro colegio, coma por ejemplo, los de Alemán, Francés y Latín.

Mike Croasdale

"I'm with Croasdale."

Tam Van Rueden

"Coach Kopenski's ability to teach football is exceeded only by his ability as a matchmaker."

Bob Dondos

"I have decided to skip college and enter pro ball next year. There is no competition left in the amateurs, and I have no more room in my trophy case."

BB Johnson

"I've been taking private movies of my performance in the games, and I've concluded one thing: I don't look any better in color."

Mike Connolly

"I'm definitely improving as a football player, but the mental strain is causing me to lose my curls."

Jim Gilbert

When asked why his brother had not played yet this year, Bob replied, "Why would he? Everything he knows he learned from me." We understand Bob.

Bob Clementy

"I never had an idol until I saw myself in the Journal."

Pat Bean

Joe could not be reached for comment. Word has it that he is moonlighting to earn money to cover the down payment on his new helmet.

Joe Fritz

Speaking seriously for a moment, it should be understood that the efforts of the players combined with the complete support of the students can turn the football field into a symbol for our school year.

FORCE-FED

THE ECLECTIC

MEMORY TEST

Here found in Mr. Stewart's box: "We got hard and went home." It was signed by two authors.

High school education is dull and cold. A lot of people stop reading at that point. But here with us just a minute, and ask yourself some questions. How often have you signed with school when a teacher didn't show up for class? How often have you chosen when Father Schinnerer announced a free day? How often have you stopped out, or even wanted to stop out, of a class, or a whole day of school?

When you did any of those things, you were saying that you found high school dull, that you'd rather do something else, that you were happy at no time or a day off from the price of education.

For most people, that's all there is to it—education isn't very exciting. They'd probably rather do other things, but they're in school, so they'll make the best of it. But for some people, education is not just dull, it is unbearable. And some of those people are at Marquette High. They're the ones who are thinking about quitting school. They're the ones who come down or absent. Their numbers are small, but they exist.

High school education is dull and cold, and high schools have to fight for our interest. Marquette High is fighting girls, music, sports, social, sports, sports, sports, the rest of our outside life for our interest—and at last it achieves a stalemate.

A group of students—Tom Kroschok, Mark Kelly, Geoff Thish, Peter Spiverson, Armin Baier, and Matt Grubbs—were concerned about education and the problems of education. They discussed the problem, visited other schools, and posted their ideas. This article is the result.

We do not intend to suggest ways in which Marquette can win the battle for our interest. Our belief is that the battle should not exist in the first place. We think that education encompasses all of life, and that a school should deal with the life and interests and concerns of its students.

Furthermore, we believe that the true duty of a school is to instill in its students an appreciation of the joy of knowledge, to teach that knowledge is a goal—not a way to grades or college or money or anything else.

These two beliefs are our response to the problems of education. If these beliefs are put into practice, then high schools will no longer be a dull and cold prison, but a living and exciting part of our lives. And this we believe is the goal of a high school.

We are not suggesting. We think this can happen, and we believe at Marquette High. We think steps have been taken in this direction—the relaxing of regulations, the introduction of English and Theology classes—and we support them. But we think more needs to be done.

In the next issue of the Flambeau, we hope to analyze in more detail the problems with education at Marquette, and to present specific ideas we think should be taken to deal with these problems.

 God

Bill Peiffer died on November 4, 1970, at the age of 17. But the tragedy and loss of his death were overshadowed by the awareness in us of the way he lived and died. His love of life, courage facing death, and faith in God as he lay long in the hospital were examples to us all.

Bill's life at Marquette has increased our awareness of what an actively concerned person can accomplish. But his long suffering and death added a further dimension to our lives. To be sure, Bill taught and gave us much in his death. We will remember him always as we accept some of his spirit and faith in God. What he taught will remain with us throughout our lives, and enable us to better serve our fellow man with an increased awareness of what life is.

"Father, do not let this hour come upon me. But that is why I came, to go through this hour of suffering. O Father, bring glory to your name!" Then a voice spoke from heaven, "I have brought glory to it, and I will do so again."

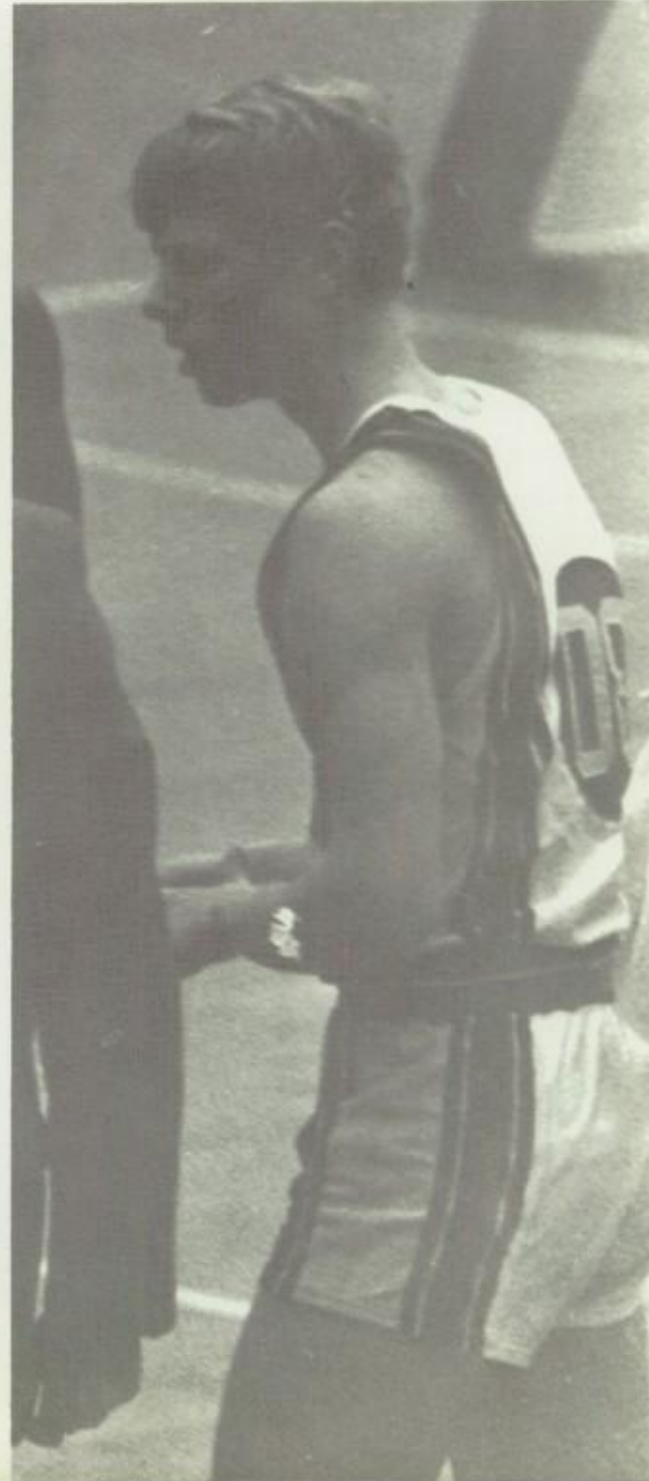

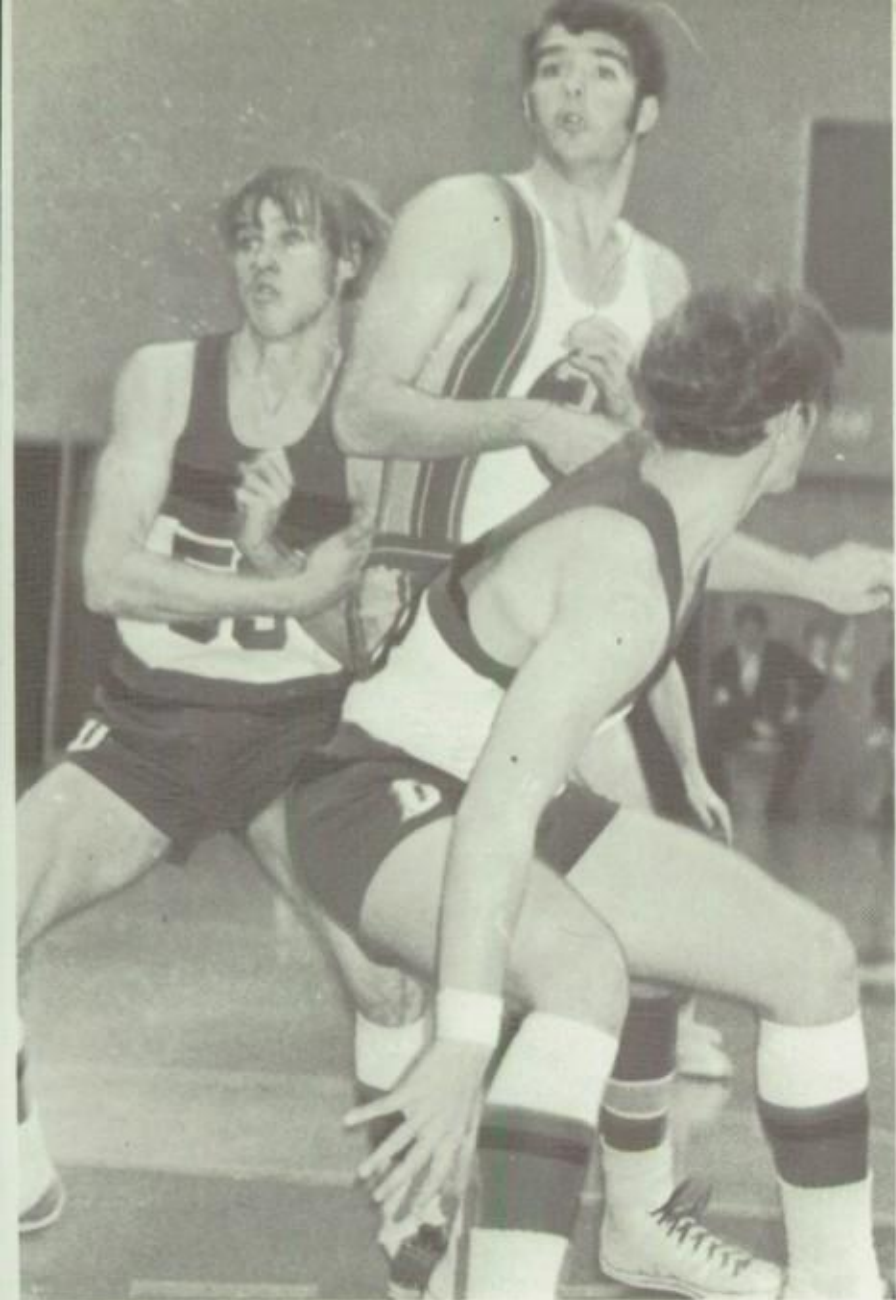

St. John 12:27-28

Basketball

A rebuilding year . . . no returning starters . . . a premier group of sophs . . . Felix and Reggie . . . Tex . . . a season everyone expected . . . beating the teams we were supposed to . . . losing the close ones to the teams we were supposed to . . . then came the state regionals . . . the improving Toppers roll over 3 opponents into the state tournament . . . our first round opponent? . . . Pius . . . we'd lost a close one to them in overtime already . . . but we'd beat 'em . . . it's close, as everyone expected . . . a new strategy enables Reggie to score at will over superstar Greg Johnson . . . it came down to the last second . . . we trailed by one . . . we had the last shot . . . the shot goes up . . . then what happened . . . all Marquettes trudged out of the arena into the rain . . .

The Marquette Webster Club

Coach and Moderator: James Copeland

Coach: Edward Konat, S.J.

Coach: Kenneth Thames

In the past few years the Webster Club has established a tradition of excellence in speech. The success of this year's team has been greater than that of any other team in the history of United States high school speech.

First Place Team at the National Catholic Forensic League National Tournament held in New Orleans.

First Place Team at the National Forensic League National Tournament held at Stanford University.

First Team in history to win both National Tournaments in one year, setting records for total points at both tournaments.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE NATIONALS CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

NATIONAL CATHOLIC FORENSIC LEAGUE NATIONALS CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

NCFL NATIONALS FINALISTS

John Patek; First Place Original Oratory, Neal Devitt and Jeff Clark; Second Place Debate Team, Mark Foley; First Place Extemporaneous Speaking.

Debate Team of Mark Miner and David Dreis; First Place at the High Point Invitational Tournament.

NCFL STATE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

THE FUTURE STARS — FRESHMAN TEAM

The debaters and speakers of Marquette have scored many, and some nationally unprecedented, victories this year. And yet, they have developed something far greater than a successful team. That is community. A very real community. Perhaps its birth was inevitable with the considerable time spent together in practice and competition. But certainly the conscious efforts of their coaches to form this community were most effective. Mr. Copeland's frosh safaris to movies and hockey games. Basketball games with Mr. Thames. The great awakening of Mr. Konat's Webster Club Retreat. With all of their shared experiences the individuals of the team came to know and love each other, thus attaining the goal of life at Marquette. This was the true success of the Webster Club this year.

Mr. Kenneth Thames

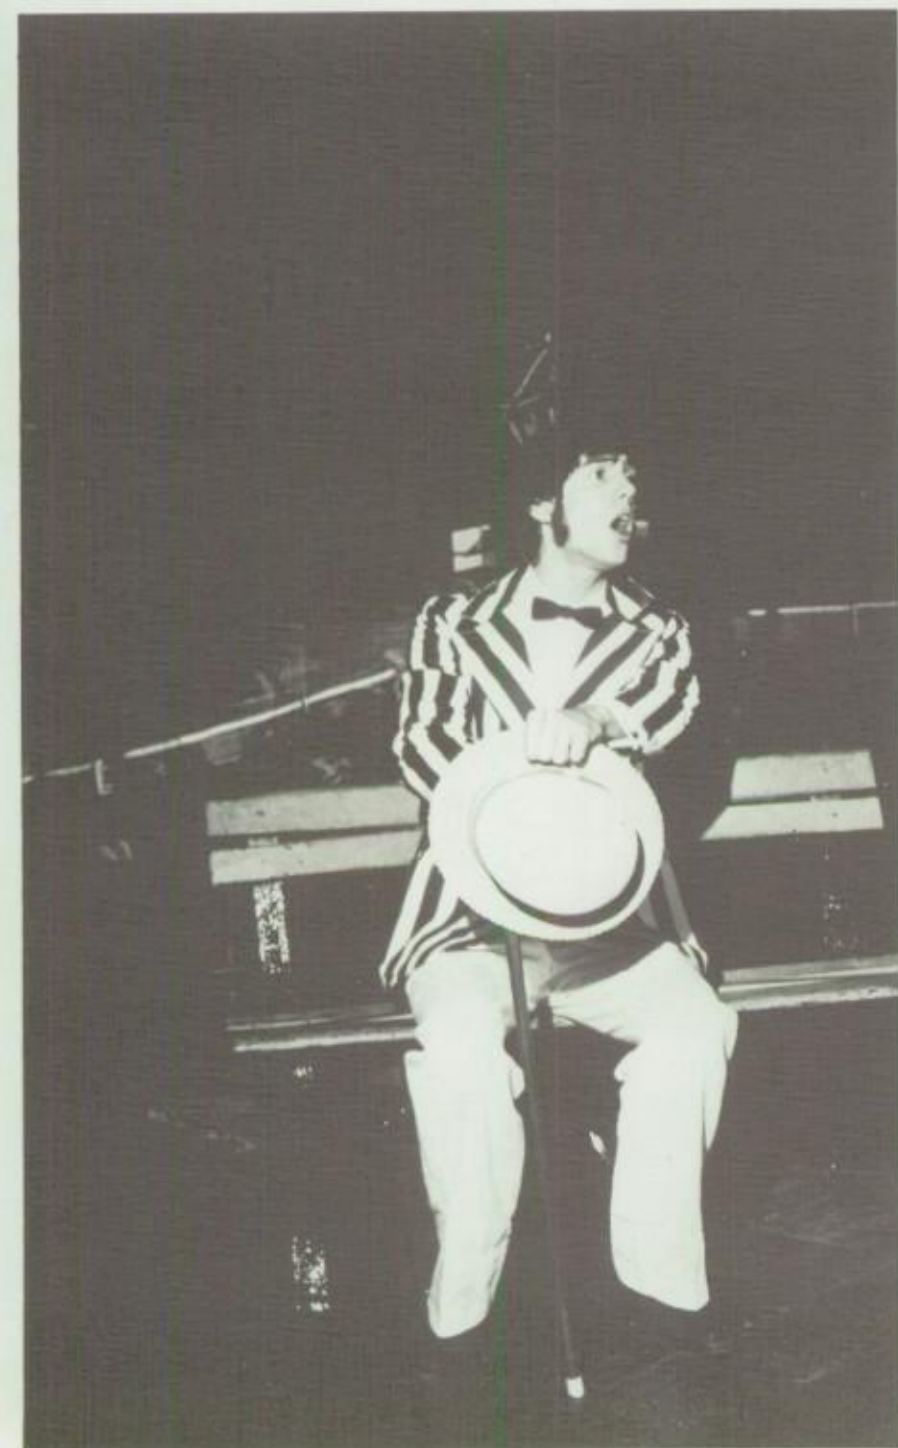

Mr. Edward Konat, S.J. and charges

Mr. James Copeland, "The Cat," will be back.

With Don Kuehn out in midseason, Skip Phillips was singled out to take his place. The doubles team of Clemency and Coffey was a second reason why it appeared that the Marquette "Racketeers" could not be silenced for long.
